

Idaho KinCare Project 2012

My Family. My Story.

Expressions of children raised by relatives or other significant adults

The Contest.

This art contest celebrates the relatives and significant adults who open their hearts and homes to children. Over 23,000 Idaho children live in households headed by a grandparent or other relative.

The Instructions.

Compose a poem, write a short essay or draw a picture that describes how living with someone other than your parents (such as a grandparent, aunt, or uncle) has made a positive difference in your life. Entries will be judged in three age categories: Up to 9 years old, 10-14 years old, and 15-18 years old.

The Rules.

- All participating children must live in Idaho State and be 5-18 years old. Children must currently live or have lived in a kincare family in the past.
- Poems should be 20 lines or less.
- Essays should be 200 words or less.
- Entries may be submitted on the attached entry form or on a separate piece of white paper, 8.5x11 inches. Drawings should be on white, unlined paper. If the entry form is not used, make sure to include your name, age, address, phone number, and email (if available).
- Use colored pencils, markers, pencil, or crayons on any drawings. Make your art as big and bold as possible and add a statement that explains your drawing.
- Entries must be original, in English or Spanish and unpublished.
- Winners will be notified in early July and all decisions of the judges are final.
- We reserve the right of first publication and use of writings and drawings.
- All entries may be published in a 2012 book called My Family. My Story.
