

Stroke Fever: Optimizing Stroke Outcomes

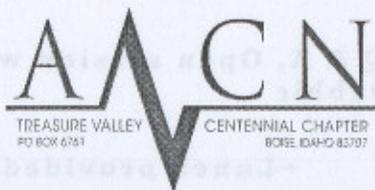

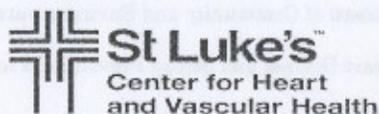

St. Luke's RMC
Anderson Center
Canyon Room

June 15, 2009
0900 to 12:30pm

Registration deadline:
June 10, 2009

Stroke Fever: Optimizing Stroke Outcomes

Collaborative educational opportunity:
St. Luke's RMC
Idaho Heart Disease & Stroke
Prevention Program
Treasure Valley Centennial Chapter,
America Association of Critical Care Nurses

Attention: Jane Miller RN MS

Center for Heart and Vascular Health

St. Luke's Regional Medical Center

190 East Bannock St

Boise, ID 83712

YES! I will be attending "Stroke Fever"

NAME _____

Affiliation: _____

Contact information: _____

Debbie Estes RN BSN
MNA/ME candidate

Clinical Program Coordinator
Stroke Program
Medical City Dallas Hospital,
Dallas, Texas

Course objectives:

- Describe current state of care for stroke patients in Idaho; future directions
- Discuss the pathological damage to the brain during stroke
- Discuss four key steps for maximizing clinical outcomes for stroke patients
- Discuss the National Institute of Health recommended ED response times *

from NINDS Proceedings of a National Symposium on rapid Identification and treatment of Acute Stroke*

"To Dose or Not to Dose:
Optimizing Stroke Outcomes
With tPA"

08:30—09:00 Registration
Coffee and continental breakfast

09:00— 0915 April Dunham
Idaho Department of Health and Welfare
Bureau of Community and Environmental Health
Heart Disease and Stroke Prevention Program
Stroke Care Update: Idaho

09:15 to 10:30 Debbie Estes
Pathophysiology and effects of stroke on brain tissue

10:30 to 10:45 Break

10:45 to 12:15 Debbie Estes
Key steps for maximizing clinical outcomes
NIH ED response times

12:15 Q & A, Open session with Debbie

~Lunch provided~

St. Luke's Regional Medical Center
Anderson Center, Canyon Room
08:30am to 12:30pm

ACCREDITATION

Application pending for 3 CEs through Idaho Nurses Association to be granted at the completion of the evaluation period.

REGISTRATION

Deadline: June 10, 2009

Submit name/title, affiliation, contact information to Jane Miller

By phone: (208) 381-1097

By email: millerja@slrmc.org

By mail: (see back label)

FEES: Free, No Charge!

CONTACT INFORMATION:

If you have questions please contact:
Jane Miller RN MS
(208) 381-1097 millerja@slrmc.org
St. Luke's Center for Heart & Vascular
Health