Canyon County is located in southwestern Idaho, bordering Oregon. It ranks 2nd among Idaho counties in population and 39th in area. Canyon, Ada, Boise, Gem and Owyhee counties comprise the Boise City-Nampa Metropolitan Statistical Area. Unlike most Idaho counties, the vast majority, 93.6 percent, of Canyon County is privately owned. While trade and service employment is high, agriculture, food processing and electronics manufacturing form major components of the economy. Annual average total civilian employment grew 46.8 percent from 1996 to 2006. Major employers include Amalgamated Sugar Company, J.R. Simplot Company, Plexus Corporation, MPC Computers, Caldwell, Nampa and Vallivue school districts, Canyon County government, City of Nampa, Woodgrain Millwork, Inc., Wal-Mart, West Valley Medical Center and Mercy Medical Center.

Two excellent private colleges are located here, Albertson College of Idaho and Northwest Nazarene University. The formation of a new community college, College of Western Idaho, is occurring on the site of the existing Boise State University satellite campus, located at the Canyon County Center in the city of Nampa. Canyon County is also the heart of Idaho's wine country, containing several award-winning wineries.
