

Idaho Latino Behavioral Health
Conference Committee
Presents:

Friday, November 9, 2012

8:30-5:00 p.m.

Northern Lights Cinema Grill
Nampa, Idaho

Reflecting on the Past, Envisioning the Future:

A Look at Play Therapy Basics and the Nuances of a Growing Hispanic Culture

Presented by:

Yvonne Garza, Ph.D., LMSW, LPC-S, RPT

Associate Professor, play therapy coordinator, and coordinator of the Master of Counseling program at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, TX.

$35

6 CEUs (one in ethics) and lunch
naswidaho.wordpress.com

Reflecting on the Past, Envisioning the Future:

A Look at Play Therapy Basics and the Nuances of a Growing Hispanic Culture

This information-packed workshop will address:

- ethical issues in play therapy
- the facilitative language of play therapy
- limit-setting and choice-giving
- culture sensitive play therapy
- research support for play therapy/filial including support for PT with Hispanics.

Register
Schedule of Event
Directions
Speaker Biography

www.naswidaho.wordpress.com

A total of 6 CEUs, including one in Ethics, will be available for Social Workers, Psychologists and Counselors through NASW. The Idaho Licensing Board of Professional Counselors and Marriage and Family Therapists have approved to provide continuing education courses include the Idaho Chapter National Association for Social Workers.

Association for Play Therapy approved CEUs, in addition to Continuing Education Credits, pending NNU approval process.

Our generous sponsors allow the conference
to be presented for only $35

Supporting Sponsors

Associate Sponsor

Complex
Care of Idaho

Exhibition Sponsors

211 Idaho Care
Line

Pioneer Health
Resources

Title Sponsor

 N A S W · IDAHO CHAPTER
National Association of Social Workers