On February 22nd and 23rd, The Advocates will present a benefit performance of A Memory, a Monologue, a Rant, and a Prayer (MMRP), coupled with a One Billion Rising (OBR) dance performance by the Dirty Feet Dance Company. MMRP is a groundbreaking collection of monologues by world-renowned authors and playwrights, edited by Eve Ensler and Mollie Doyle. It is designed to be presented as a reading, and includes pieces by and for men.

OBR is an escalation of the V-Day movement. Estimates predict that one in three women on the planet will be raped or beaten in her lifetime. OBR invites one billion women and those who love them to rise up, dance, and demand an end to this violence.

As a part of the One Billion Rising movement, The Advocates invites the public to submit videos up to 2.5 minutes in length describing why they Speak Out on these issues. We will use these videos for public education and engagement over the next month and a half, and representative pieces will be selected for a compilation to be shown at V-Day The Advocates 2013. For inspiration, please visit www.onebillionrising.org; for full details, including open house hours for creating videos, please visit www.theadvocatesorg.org.
