We need a way of thinking about and dealing with

Sex, Conflict, Alcohol, Intimacy

Because it's about sex . . .

it's often 'laugh-out-loud' entertaining and fun!

Humor is a great way to loosen people up and lower defenses so we can talk about what needs to be talked about!

Because it's about conflict . . .

it'll get 'under your skin' and make you think!

So the way I look at conflict really matters? . . . Yup!

Because it's about alcohol . . .

it concerns 'how we treat ourselves' as well as how we treat each other!

What is Nonviolent Sexuality? ... Good Question!

Actually, there are lots of answers to that question. Here are just a few to get you started:

- 1) A Campus Dialogue on Sex, Conflict, Alcohol & Intimacy
- 2) A 'Conflict-literate' approach to alcohol and sexual violence education.
- 3) Practical knowledge & principled wisdom, on a subject that most of us are uncomfortable discussing.
- 4) 'Safe Space' for people to learn and grow from the experience of conflict.
- 5) A program for EVERYONE on campus: Male & Female, Gay & Straight, Bi-Sexual and Transgendered.
- 6) Solid content, research-based, inclusive language, with a strategic use of humor, tastefully done.
- 7) What everyone needs to know about sex, conflict, alcohol and intimacy.

Nonviolent Sexuality is a presentation of: Learning To Live With Conflict, Inc.

Nonviolent Sexuality is one of the most engaging and effective programs in higher education to deal with alcohol and sexual violence issues on campus. The content is solid and research based, the language used is inclusive of all audience members, and the strategic use of humor is tastefully done.

Presented on over 1000 Campuses in all 50 States and Canada

Abstinence is addressed as a valid choice in relationships but not presented as a substitute for dealing with the realities of human sexuality and conflict. Nonviolent Sexuality deals with some sensitive issues in an entertaining and interactive manner that students find engaging and fun.

What is unique about Bob Hall is his approach to the confluence of sexuality and conflict as an opportunity for learning and growth, through direct dialogue and better understanding; rather than a struggle of one side against the other, to be won or lost through blaming and finger-pointing. It is this non-adversarial/ resolution-oriented approach which has won the approval of both men and women on college campuses nationwide.

Nominated 3 Times in 5 Years
NACA Lecture Program of the Year

Bob's ability to establish an almost immediate rapport with any size audience, together with a combination of role playing, a touch of humor and a continuous dialogue with his audience, creates a relaxed and interactive atmosphere which serves to lighten the mood and lower defenses toward an area of life which most of us feel uncomfortable discussing.

Best of all the program challenges students to take responsibility for the way they think and behave, without preaching or threatening. Non-violence and co-creation are the order of the day as students are invited to think for themselves about who they wish to be and what choices they wish to make in their relationship lives.

Bob Hall is the founder of Learning To Live With Conflict, Inc., a company he established in 1987 to provide education and training in the analysis and resolution of conflict. His academic background includes a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from the Rochester Institute of Technology and a Masters Degree in Conflict Resolution from Antioch University; as well as a host of informal study and research on sexual violence, human sexuality, addiction, violence, conflict, nonviolence, and Girardian Theory on mimetic rivalry, sacrificial violence, and scapegoating.

Bob's introduction to the conflict field came in 1981 through work he was doing with self-defense education and violence prevention. Bob holds a black belt in judo and has been active in the sport for over 40 years as a competitor, coach, instructor and organizer. Aware of the risks and limitations of traditional fighting approaches to self-defense, Bob co-authored and team-taught a 20-hour classroom course in self-defense education at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1984-1988. The course was designed to train students in preventing, recognizing, and defusing potentially violent conflicts before they had escalated to violence; as well as to prepare students physically and psychologically for the use of violence as a last resort. Course material was based on his back-ground in judo, and research on current self-defense literature, victimology, and the writings of Mohandas K. Gandhi and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., on non-violence. In 1986 his focus shifted to work with rape and sexual assault prevention and the broad spectrum of issues surrounding the problem of sexual violence. Over time, Bob's understanding of conflict and violence and his experience in fighting arts and exposure to Gandhi's teachings caused him to embrace non-violence as the defining core principle of his work with conflict; and the only practical answer to the problem of violence. This led to the formation of Learning To Live With Conflict, Inc. in the summer of 1987 under the doctrine that: "A peaceful world is not possible without individual people who see peace as a possibility." Since 1987, Bob Hall has presented Nonviolent Sexuality on over 1000 campuses throughout the United States and Canada and has received virtually unanimous acclaim for his unique use of the tools of conflict resolution.

Block Booking Discounts are available for all campuses involved in block booking where the block has been arranged by the schools involved or when our sales rep. offers a block discount as incentive to schedule on a specific date around an existing scheduled engagement. Shared-Date programs are already discounted for same day cooperative scheduling and are therefore not eligible for further block booking discounts.

Holding a Date: Regarding scheduling, you may place up to three dates on hold on our calendar while you are considering the program. This doesn't bind you to sign a contract for any date, nor does it bind us to hold any date open indefinitely. However, if someone else calls us and requests a date you have on-hold, we will call and give you the right-of first-refusal before releasing the date to the other party. That way you don't need to worry about a date that you are interested in getting booked out from under you while you make your decision.

Campus Co-Sponsor Partners

If you are interested in partnering with other organizations on campus to co-sponsoring a program, here is a short list of the types of campus organizations we often work with:

- Student Activities
- First Year Experience
- Residence Life
- Greek Life
- Athletics
- Women's Center
- Counseling/Health & Wellness
- Sexual Assault Education/Advocacy
- Drug & Alcohol Education

On Campus Extras

In addition to the main Nonviolent Sexuality program we also offer a series of what we call "On Campus Extras" for a variety of campus communities. You can find detailed information on the sessions available below.
